SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 1062/A & I. dated the 2nd September 1915, I have the honour to state that Mr. R. Ramanuja Iyengar has been in charge of the Steam Boiling Plant at Agaram and he is now making alterations to the same. I propose to put him in charge of the Kolar District and he will have to travel over the whole District supervising the erection of such plants as may be installed. I consider it desirable that he should have a Motor cycle.

I have the honour to be,
